Risks

There are certain risks associated with investing in loans and other financial instruments. Peer-to-peer ("P2P") lending is considered to be a high-risk investment opportunity. Please bear in mind that, in many cases, your money (Deposit) will not be supervised by the legal authority of the state that the lending company is operating in.

If you decide to invest in foreign loans there are additional risk factors such as greater volatility and political, economic, and currency risks and differences in accounting methods.

It is important to remember that past financial performance is not a guarantee or predictor of future investment performance. Moreover, there is no guarantee that the information on potential returns and interest rates presented on Welfio will translate into an actual return. They are meant to serve for informative purposes only. If you decide to participate in P2P lending, you do it taking sole responsibility, for any outcomes arising from it.
